

Remembered by Elks On Leaving the City

As a reminder of the esteem in which the Elks hold him, George F. Emerson, who resigned as esteemed leading knight to go to Akron where he becomes city salesman for the Gough Lumber Company of that city, was presented with a watch at the meeting of the lodge Thursday night. The presentation on behalf of the lodge was made in a brief speech by A. A. Faflick and Mr. Emerson, who was completely surprised, responded in an appropriate manner. Mr. Emerson has been a valued member of the lodge and in the absence of Exalted Ruler A. S. Cunningham, on account of illness, he filled the station of exalted ruler Thursday evening.
