

NEW RECORDS

PACKED COURT ROOM AND HEAPS OF TALK

At Second "Sunday" Violation Trial Today

DEFENDANT FOUND GUILTY

The trial of J. J. Clankowski, charged with the violation of the Sunday law, was held today in the court room of the city of Bucyrus. The trial was held in the afternoon and the court room was packed with spectators. The defendant, J. J. Clankowski, was represented by his attorney, A. A. Palko, who made a lengthy and eloquent plea for his client. The prosecution was represented by the city attorney, W. C. Hester, who made a strong case against the defendant. The jury, composed of twelve men, returned a verdict of guilty against the defendant. The court then sentenced the defendant to a fine of $100.00 and costs. The trial was held in the presence of a large number of spectators, and the court room was filled with the sound of voices and the rustle of papers. The trial was held in the afternoon and the court room was packed with spectators. The defendant, J. J. Clankowski, was represented by his attorney, A. A. Palko, who made a lengthy and eloquent plea for his client. The prosecution was represented by the city attorney, W. C. Hester, who made a strong case against the defendant. The jury, composed of twelve men, returned a verdict of guilty against the defendant. The court then sentenced the defendant to a fine of $100.00 and costs. The trial was held in the presence of a large number of spectators, and the court room was filled with the sound of voices and the rustle of papers.

WILKINS-REPP TONIGHT

The Wilkins-Repp opera company will give a performance at the Grand Opera House tonight. The company is well known and has given many successful performances. The program for tonight includes several popular operas. The performance is expected to attract a large audience.

BIRDS INCLUDED ON ORBODAY

On Orboday, March 15, the birds included in the list are: Blue Jay, Crow, Starling, and others. The list is compiled by the local ornithologists and is used to determine the date of the start of the nesting season. The birds listed are those that are most common in the area and are expected to be nesting by this time of year.

7

Clipped By:

jenealogy62
Sun, Jan 19, 2020