

Cunningham New Exalted Ruler of Elks

The Elks had big doings at lodge Thursday night with election of officers for the ensuing year, initiation and an elaborate lunch on the program. It was the first night of the attendance contest and there was a fine turnout of lodge members.

Auburn S. Cunningham was elected exalted ruler and will be installed with the other newly elected officers early in April. Others elected were: Esteemed Leading Knight, G. F. Emerson; Loyal Knight, Frank A. Luce; Lecturing Knight, Ralph Strube; Secretary, R. W. Lamb; Treasurer, A. A. Fafick; Tyler, J. J. McBride; trustee for five years, A. M. Jones. Mr. Jones was also elected delegate to the grand lodge and James Aylward, alternate.

Special work was conferred on two candidates and was greatly enjoyed by the Elks who witnessed it.

Captain Myers' team is leading in the attendance contest.
